Ryan Stafne plays the game with energy and skill. Some have said that he's part Pointer and part Flusher. He works the field like a champ and is always ready with a big smile for all. We hope to see more of him in 2011.

Mike Kretsch (left) and Rich Boumeester are #18 and #19 in the last 5 years. Only 7 points separate them at the start of the 2011 season, but Mike is determined to pass Rich in the coming year.

Tim Brewster has moved up to the #12 position. He and his Team Bunker Hill mates have a habit of showing up and making tough day for other players.

Paul Schultz quietly goes about gobbling up the points and is now #4 in the past five years. No, he didn't get that "Superman" hat with a Wheaties box top. He earned it!

Chuck Sward sits in the #8 position, even though he missed a full season due to an injury. One of the game's true "nice guys", but a fierce competitor every time the clock starts.
